Issue 9

Friday 11th November

Poppies

Our giant school poppy has been on display in the hall all week. It has been created after all the children in the school made their own poppy. They have then been put together to create our own school poppy. I hope you agree that it looks fantastic. Many thanks to Mrs Welsh's husband for putting it together. At our special assembly today we were treated to some lovely poetry by Year 4 before our one minute silence.

Children in Need

This will be on Friday 18th November. If your child would like to dress up in non-uniform and come dressed as their favourite Superhero for the day, dressed in spots, stripes or something else then that would be fantastic. All we would ask for is a small donation.

Bookshop

This term's bookshop will be on Wednesday 30th November. Children are able to save a small amount of money each week. If you would like to encourage your child to learn the valuable skill of saving, please send in money (either in 50p or £1 denominations) on a Tuesday with your child and it will be collected first thing.
