

Year 2

The children should transition from reading picture books to sharing chapter books. This will encourage them to use their imagination more. Children could draw pictures to show what they are reading – the author is painting a picture in the reader's mind.

(See Pie Corbett's Reading Spine for more detailed teaching notes)

Title	Author	Notes for teaching
Traction Man is Here	Mini Grey	What other adventures could Traction Man go on? Children could design or invent a new superhero.
Meerkat Mail	Emily Gravett	Show children a video of meerkats and discuss what they are. Children could write a newspaper article and their own postcards from Sunny.
Amazing Grace	Mary Hoffman	Discuss the characters mentioned in the book – Mowgli, Aladdin, Joan of Arc – do the children know them? Discuss if Raj and Natalie are right in the story. What is the most important line?
Pumpkin Soup	Helen Cooper	Discuss verbs - 'yelped' 'plodded' 'scoffed' 'muttered'. What could have happened to Duck when he left? Add sound effects to the story.
Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Book	Lauren Child	Ensure children know the stories of Goldilocks, Rapunzel, Dick Whittington and Cinderella. What does it mean by 'falling' into a book?
Dr. Xargle's Book of Earthlets	Tony Ross	Collect some of the strange words and given them definitions. Together make a book of misunderstandings that aliens might have about earth.
Not Now, Bernard	David McKee	Who is naughty in the story? Why are the parents ignoring Bernard? When do we feel or behave like monsters?
Tuesday	David Wiesner	Hot Seat the man at 11.21pm. Why do the frogs fall off the leaves? Interview the man in pajamas and write a police report.
The Frog Prince	Brothers Grimm	Archaic story type. What is the message of this story? What have we learnt? Can we change the characters of the story and write our own?

School Reading Spine

Jack and the Beanstalk – linking to Maximus and the Beanstalk	Various Authors	Archaic story type. Children to be used to the traditional version of Jack and the Beanstalk. How can the ending be different?
