Issue 16

Friday 12th March

Just like before Christmas, school is once again filled with children. Any first day nerves seem to have disappeared and as always, classrooms are calm and hives of activity. Thank you for slipping straight back into the routines we had before Christmas concerning dropping off and collecting.

Red Nose Day

This is taking place across the country next Friday, 19th March. The only theme this year is humour, so children can come to school in non-school uniform. Unfortunately, we will not be selling red noses this year in school, but they are available in different supermarkets. Please stress to your child the importance of looking after their own red nose and not sharing it!

World Down Syndrome Day

Although this falls on a Sunday this year (21st March), we would still like to celebrate the day and so we are asking everyone at school to wear odd socks on Monday 22nd March.

If you feel that you would like to contribute to either Red Nose Day, World Down Syndrome Day or both. Please send a donation in on that particular day.
