

This week in school...

What a busy week we have had! I am beginning to lose count of all my reading ambassadors as we have so many enthusiastic readers achieving GOLD on their class Reading Quest. There is still plenty of time to aim for the next stage if you are almost there. Don't forget that you can use the school library, the classroom libraries, your local library or the online library (via the school website) to find the books that you need. You can also find lots of books read aloud online too if you search. Listening to a story still counts!

The Power Of Books

A child, a book, a read, a chat.

A simple question: "How was that?"

This is the way a reader grows,
 who cheers for heroes beating foes,
 who doesn't think a book's a chore,
 who begs, instead, "Just one page more!",
 who'll make it through adversity,
 and still embrace diversity,
 who laughs, who loves,
 who weeps, who wails,
 and all of this from reading tales.
 Not from a quiz, not from a test.
 A book will always be the best!

Bug Club

Independent

This week, Year 3 and 4 are sharing the honor of 'Bug Club Top Class' as they have an equal number of avid readers busily working their way through their online libraries.

Keep up the good work everyone!

Year 4 Takeover

Instead of updating you with reading information from across the school this week, year 4 have taken over my job. On the next page you will find out about the books they have read together this year and what they thought of them. They have also worked together to produce a brilliant acrostic about reading - which I think we might need to put on display!

Nursery & Reception Children

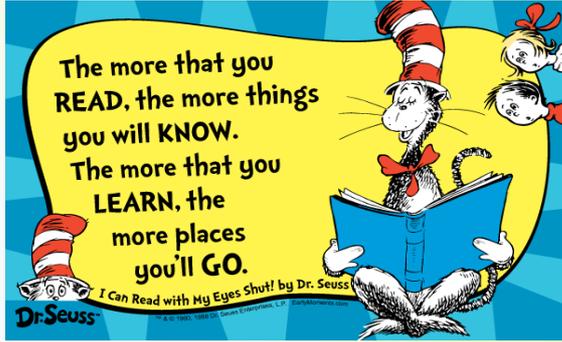

Read and Explore this lovely new book...

A great book to teach children that a little care for your local environment and taking time to think of those around you makes for a joyful world for all. After you have watched the story using this link, why not try out some of the activities listed on the website: Words for Life Website

Let's go on a reading journey with year 4.

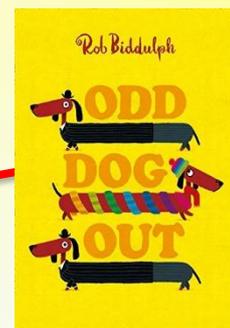

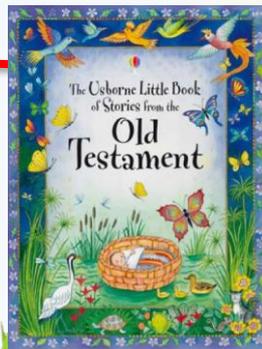

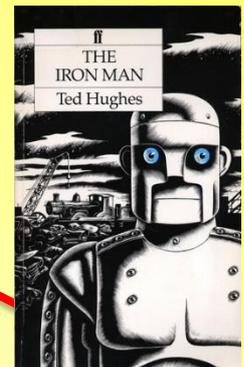

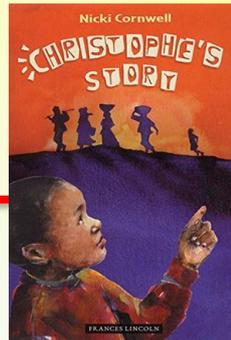

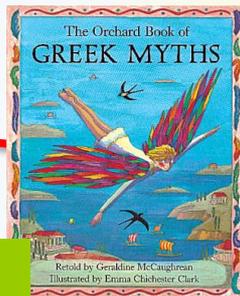

The Goldfish Boy was my favourite book. It was so interesting that I couldn't put it down. If I had the chance I would read it 20 more times! (William)

I really enjoyed reading Dinkin Dings and Frightening Things from Bug Club as it was so funny and a little crazy! (Layla)

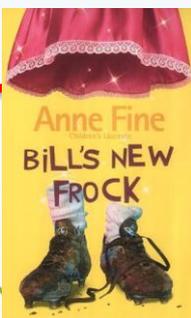

FAV

My favourite class book was The Amazing adventures of Adolphus Tips because it put so much into my head that I could imagine!
Billie

My favourite class book was Odd Dog Out as it showed me that it is fine to be different! (Alice)

I love Tom Gates because his books help me read with more emotion and expression.
(Georgia)

I like to read in bed as I feel so comfortable and cosy. I snuggle up to read one of my Bug Club from my Bug Club library. There are so many just waiting to be opened!
(Robyn)

When I read I feel happy and calm. (Ollie)
